MEMORANDUM FOR: All NIOs

For the record, it would appear that Saturday's Evans/Novak column upset the Carter camp as much as it did people in this building. Powell was on the phone to the DCI and Aaron to Knoche Saturday afternoon. Both were conveying the President-elect's distress, and his feeling that the briefings a week ago Friday were of a high caliber and thoroughly professional.

Richard Lehman
Deputy to the DCI for National Intelligence
